

OCEAN CITY, MD

MASCA is proud and excited to present its 2008 annual conference which represents the organizations 70th year providing of information and training opportunities in best practices and innovative approaches to corrections, parole and probation and related fields. The theme for this year's conference is "The Overflow of Corrections: The Road to Re-entry and Reunification." As we plan for this historic event, we are working on developing an informative program with inspiring and experienced professionals in the field. This year's conference features several spectacular workshops with topics to include: "Gang Violence," "Officer Safety," "Domestic Violence," "Approaches to Re-entry" and "Pre-sentence Investigations and What Works." A special panel of experts is being planned to discuss the theme of Re-entry. Special guests include keynote speaker Devon Brown, JD (Director of the District of Columbia's Department of Corrections), Luncheon speaker, Jasper Ormond (Director of Criminal Justice Programs, Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency, CSOSA), and Terry Odoms (Director of Court Social Services, Juvenile Probation Agency, D.C. Superior Court). There will be special appearances by American Correctional Association President, Gary Maynard, American Parole and Probation Association President Gary Hinzman, Paul Quander, Director of Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency for the District of Columbia and other notable professionals in the field.

The location for this year's conference will be Ocean, City Maryland a favorite destination for both work and relaxation. There is always a lot to do with many nearby historic sites, shopping outlets, museums, amusements parks, and other attractions for all ages. Please come out and join us for this landmark conference. Soak up the sun, sand and network with other professionals in the field.

WE HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE!!
